“...Erimem’s putting her adventure boots on again...”

Caroline Morris

Written by Iain McLaughlin and Claire Bartlett

Foreword by Caroline Morris

Cover artwork by Paul Mudie

After a freak electrical storm that seems to happen indoors, a young woman is found in the Egyptian exhibit of a London museum, and she seems to look exactly like the face on the death-mask of the uncrowned Pharaoh Erimem...

What is she doing inside the exhibit? How did she get there? Is she really a Pharaoh from 1400BC? And just who is willing to search time and space to find and assassinate her?

THE LAST PHARAOH is the first in a series of novels, novellas and short story anthologies taking Erimem, a former companion of the 5th Doctor, on a new set of adventures travelling to the past, the future and into deep space. THE LAST PHARAOH takes Erimem and a group of 21st century students far into the past, to Actium in Greece where Erimem meets the famed Cleopatra VII on the eve of a vital battle which could end Egypt’s existence as a free country and condemn it to life as a Roman province. Two great rulers of Egypt come into conflict over what Egypt needs to do in order to survive, and both Erimem and Cleopatra face their own personal battles for survival.

Published by Thebes Publishing, June, 2015, price £8.99

The first in a series of novels, novellas and short story anthologies following Erimem’s new adventures features a foreword by Erimem herself, actress Caroline Morris.
